Question	Answer
Comment tu t'appelles ?	What is your name? (What are you called?)
Je m'appelle...	My name is... (I am called ....)

Pronunciation Point
Silent final consonant	- When a French word ends with a consonant, it is almost always silent, e.g. the 's' in Paris.
Phoneme [y], grapheme 'u'	The phoneme [y] does not exist in standard English. It is the sound made by the alphabet letter 'u', and can be heard in the question 'Comment tu t'appelles?'
phoneme [ɛ̃] &amp; graphemes 'in' &amp; 'un'	The phoneme [ɛ̃] is a nasal vowel, which is very common in French but does not exist in English. It is important to aim for accurate pronunciation of this phoneme. The letters 'un' form a digraph, so the 'n' should not be sounded out.

Grammar Point
Nouns	Nouns are types of words that can name people, places or things. The nouns Paris and la France are names of places. The noun Nounours is the name of the toy that helps us to learn French.
Capital letters	Paris and la France are spelt with capital letters. Place names are given a capital letter in both English and French. Nounours is spelt with a capital letter. Personal names are given a capital letter in both English and French.
